

15147 Captiva Drive
Captiva Island Florida
CaptivaBayFront.com

An exceptional and rare offering with awesome views across Pine Island Sound from this magnificent residence in the heart of the Village with room for the whole family. As you enter this commanding residence your eye is drawn straight out to the bay for endless views. With the walls of glass and volume ceilings incorporated into this open floor plan this home is ideal for today's island style living ,as it brings the outside in. Boundless amounts of wildlife frequent this location daily on the bay and you are also only steps from the beach access next to the library. With this split floorplan all guests enjoy privacy and the master is well separated as well with serene views. There is a completely separate apartment on the south east wing of the home which could be ideal for live-in family or a caretaker. An extraordinary home, built like a fortress and is available to the discerning buyer who is looking for space, integrity ,walking distance to the village ,boating and beach access.

