Experience the allure of Chaffinch House nestled in the heart of Easton's picturesque landscape. Dating back to 1893, this Queen Anne Victorian residence underwent meticulous restoration in 2019, preserving its timeless elegance. Situated on a prime corner lot, it boasts inviting porches ideal for relaxation and entertainment, including a screened-in dining area and a secluded rear porch overlooking the enchanting garden. Wander through brick pathways adorned with a Williamsburg fountain, leading to a charming potting shed and the original garage. Step inside to discover a grand foyer graced by an intricately carved oak staircase, guiding you to exquisitely designed living spaces featuring soaring ceilings and stunning hardwood floors. The living room and family room exude historic charm, each boasting a distinctive fireplace. Entertain guests in the spacious dining room with a bay window, accommodating up to twelve, seamlessly connected to the updated kitchen. Adorned with modern amenities and marble countertops, the kitchen offers ample storage, complemented by a cozy banquette dining area, alongside a convenient laundry room and butler's pantry. Ascend to the second level, where three luxurious bedrooms await. The primary suite beckons with a fireplace, a tranquil sitting room, and a sprawling closet, accompanied by a screened sleeping porch and a second porch housing a sauna, all adjoined by an opulent ensuite bath. The second bedroom features an ensuite bath and a captivating stained glass window, while the third bedroom offers its own ensuite bath. Venture to the top floor to discover two additional bedrooms boasting ensuite baths and captivating architectural elements, one currently serving as a versatile office space. Embrace the heritage of this remarkable residence, recognized by the Maryland Inventory of Historic Properties as a quintessential Victorian mansion.
