Thinking of building but don't know where? This 1.24 acre lot at the end of Albert Drive in Lincoln may be just what you are looking for! The lot sits right on the cul-de-sac at the end of this town-maintained street, has 200 feet of road frontage, and there is a driveway/level gravel area already in place. The lot will need its own well but there is both public sewer and electric nearby to hook to. Its location couldn't be more convenient – less than 2.5 miles to all kinds of local shopping and amenities including building supplies, auto repair and sales, big box store, groceries, hardware, restaurants, fast food, and small mom & pop shops.

This Lincoln location offers easy access to many outdoor recreational opportunities with Mount Jefferson Ski area just 15± miles away and the Penobscot River Trails in Grindstone are just over 35 miles away – a great place to Mountain bike, cross-country ski, walk or jog or snowshoe. Mount Katahdin and Baxter State Park are just over an hour away with 215 miles of trails, over 209,000 acres of wilderness and Maine's tallest peak (5269 +/- ft). Looking for a day trip? Bar Harbor and Eastport are each about 2 hours ride from Lincoln by car. Portland is 2.5± hours away as is Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada. Overnight trips to Quebec City, Quebec, Canada (5± hours away) and Boston, MA (less than 4.5 hours) make for great weekend get-away destinations.

Closer to home you will find plenty of adventures on the endless miles of ATV and Snowmobile trails with ITS trail access from several spots in town. Lincoln also offers 13 lakes and the Penobscot River for watersports like boating, kayaking, canoeing, swimming and fishing. The motto for Lincoln is “Come for The Lakes and Stay for the Lifestyle” and we agree. It really is a great part of this large state of Maine to live, work, and relax. Come check it out for yourself.

If you're not sure you want to take on the task of building you can also look at the adjacent home that is also for sale by this owner – see the listing for 83 Albert Drive, Lincoln for more details.

Testimonial:

'A note to say thank you for all of Carmen's efforts concerning the sale of our home in Monson. She really is very experienced in the real estate market and we couldn't be more happy with the whole process. It went smoothly and in a very short time the house was sold. Her advice along the way made our job less stressful and whenever we had questions she would always return our calls and answer us. Again we appreciated the working relationship with Carmen and your company, I would give you an A plus and recommend others who want to sell or purchase a home.'

SECTION III — FLOOD HAZARD

For the purposes of this section, Maine law defines "flood" as follows:

- (1) A general and temporary condition of partial or complete inundation of normally dry areas from: (a) The overflow of inland or tidal waters; or (b) The unusual and rapid accumulation or runoff of surface waters from any source; or
- (2) The collapse or subsidence of land along the shore of a lake or other body of water as a result of erosion or undermining caused by waves or currents of water exceeding anticipated cyclical levels or suddenly caused by an unusually high water level in a natural body of water, accompanied by a severe storm or by an unanticipated force of nature, such as a flash flood or an abnormal tidal surge, or by some similarly unusual and unforeseeable event that results in flooding as described in subparagraph (1), division (a).

For purposes of this section, Maine law defines "area of special flood hazard" as land in a floodplain having 1% or greater chance of flooding in any given year, as identified in the effective federal flood insurance study and corresponding flood insurance rate maps.

REAL ESTATE BROKERAGE RELATIONSHIPS FORM

Right Now You Are A Customer

Are you interested in buying or selling residential real estate in Maine? Before you begin working with a real estate licensee it is important for you to understand that Maine Law provides for different levels of brokerage service to buyers and sellers. You should decide whether you want to be represented in a transaction (as a client) or not (as a customer). To assist you in deciding which option is in your best interest, please review the following information about real estate brokerage relationships:

Maine law requires all real estate brokerage companies and their affiliated licensees ("licensee") to perform certain basic duties when dealing with a buyer or seller. You can expect a real estate licensee you deal with to provide the following customer-level services:

- ✓ To disclose all material defects pertaining to the physical condition of the real estate that are known by the licensee;
- ✓ To treat both the buyer and seller honestly and not knowingly give false information;
- ✓ To account for all money and property received from or on behalf of the buyer or seller; and
- ✓ To comply with all state and federal laws related to real estate brokerage activity.

Until you enter into a written brokerage agreement with the licensee for client-level representation you are considered a "customer" and the licensee is not your agent. As a customer, you should not expect the licensee to promote your best interest, or to keep any information you give to the licensee confidential, including your bargaining position.

You May Become A Client

If you want a licensee to represent you, you will need to enter into a written listing agreement or a written buyer representation agreement. These agreements create a client-agent relationship between you and the licensee. As a client you can expect the licensee to provide the following services, in addition to the basic services required of all licensees listed above:

services required of all licensees listed above:

- ✓ To perform the terms of the written agreement with skill and care;
- ✓ To promote your best interests;
  - For seller clients this means the agent will put the seller's interests first and negotiate the best price and terms for the seller;
  - For buyer clients this means the agent will put the buyer's interests first and negotiate for the best prices and terms for the buyer; and
- ✓ To maintain the confidentiality of specific client information, including bargaining information.

COMPANY POLICY ON CLIENT-LEVEL SERVICES — WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

The real estate brokerage company's policy on client-level services determines which of the three types of agent-client relationships permitted in Maine may be offered to you. The agent-client relationships permitted in Maine are as follows:

- ✓ The company and all of its affiliated licensees represent you as a client (called "single agency");
- ✓ The company appoints, with your written consent, one or more of the affiliated licensees to represent you as an agent(s) (called "appointed agency");
- ✓ The company may offer limited agent level services as a disclosed dual agent.

WHAT IS A DISCLOSED DUAL AGENT?

In certain situations a licensee may act as an agent for and represent both the buyer and the seller in the same transaction. This is called disclosed dual agency. Both the buyer and the seller must consent to this type of representation in writing.

Working with a dual agent is not the same as having your own exclusive agent as a single or appointed agent. For instance, when representing both a buyer and a seller, the dual agent must not disclose to one party any confidential information obtained from the other party.

Remember!

Unless you enter into a written agreement for agency representation, you are a customer—not a client.

THIS IS NOT A CONTRACT

It is important for you to know that this form is not a contract. The licensee's completion of the statement below acknowledges that you have been given the information required by Maine law regarding brokerage relationships so that you may make an informed decision as to the relationship you wish to establish with the licensee/company.
