This surveyed 56.25± acre property offers acres of open fields with unlimited potential. With town water at the road, power, and internet available, plus paved Route 1 frontage, the property is perfectly suited for commercial, residential, or recreational use.

A 10-acre solar lease, set to begin in 2025, will provide steady income of $1,500 per month for 15 years, transferable to the new owner. This opens up exciting opportunities for passive income while leaving ample space for additional development.

The property's strategic location and layout make it ideal for a commercial project along Route 1, a large residential development, or a private riverside retreat. The well-built 0.5-mile gravel road ensures convenient access throughout the property.

With so many possibilities, this property is ready to bring your vision to life. Contact us today to learn more or schedule a visit!

SECTION III – FLOOD HAZARD

For the purposes of this section, Maine law defines "flood" as follows:

- (1) A general and temporary condition of partial or complete inundation of normally dry areas from:(a) The overflow of inland or tidal waters; or (b) The unusual and rapid accumulation or runoff of surface waters from any source; or
- (2) The collapse or subsidence of land along the shore of a lake or other body of water as a result of erosion or undermining caused by waves or currents of water exceeding anticipated cyclical levels or suddenly caused by an unusually high water level in a natural body of water, accompanied by a severe storm or by an unanticipated force of nature, such as a flash flood or an abnormal tidal surge, or by some similarly unusual and unforeseeable event that results in flooding as described in subparagraph (1), division (a).

For purposes of this section, Maine law defines "area of special flood hazard" as land in a floodplain having 1% or greater chance of flooding in any given year, as identified in the effective federal flood insurance study and corresponding flood insurance rate maps.

During the time the seller has owned the property:

EXHIBIT A

A certain lot or parcel of land, together with any buildings thereon, located in Machias, Washington County, Maine, being described as follows:

LOT ONE: Those certain lots or parcels of land described in a Warranty Deed of Bertha W. Johnson and Ann Savio to Larch Corporation dated October 1988 and acknowledged October 28, 1988, and recorded in Volume 1557, Page 69 of the Washington County Registry of Deeds. Said real estate is more fully described in a survey entitled "Plan of Land in Machias, Maine, Washington County, Prepared for The Larch Corporation" by Almer Huntley, Jr., & Associates, Inc., dated January 15, 1989, and recorded January 31, 1989, in Hanger 2, Slide 136 of the Washington County Registry of Deeds.

EXCEPTING and RESERVING, however, from the above referenced real estate those parcels conveyed by the following deeds:

A Warranty Deed of Larch Corporation to Stephen Rollins, dated March 1, 1990, and recorded in Volume 1625, Page 84.

A Quitclaim Deed with Covenant of Larch Corporation to Bluebird Motel, Inc., dated March 2, 1990, and recorded in Volume 1625, Page 220.

A Boundary Line Agreement between Larch Corporation and Bluebird Motel, Inc., dated March 15, 1990, and recorded in Volume 1632, Page 145.

A Warranty Deed of Larch Corporation to Ray S. Wood and Judy A. Wood as joint tenants, dated March 18, 1991, and recorded in Volume 1688, Page 304.

Reference may be had to a Standard Boundary Survey entitled "Plan of Land Machias, Maine, Washington County, Prepared for The Larch Corporation" dated October 25, 1990, and recorded in Cabinet 3, Drawer 4 as Plan 26 of the Washington County Registry of Deeds as it relates to the exceptions and reservations set forth above.

LOT TWO: A certain triangular parcel of land situated in Machias, County of Washington, State of Maine, and bounded Northerly and Easterly by the line of land of the Old Whitneyville and Machiasport Railroad; Southerly by the County Road leading to Jonesboro; and Westerly by land heretofore of Harland P. Smith.

EXCEPTING and RESERVING, however, from the above-described LOT TWO that portion thereon conveyed by Larch Corporation to Donald G. Smith by Warranty Deed, dated October 25, 1995, and recorded in Volume 2038, Page 57 of the Washington County Registry of Deeds.

The above-described real estate is more fully described in a survey entitled "Plan of Land in Machias, Maine, Washington County, Prepared for The Larch Corporation" by Almer Huntley, Jr. & Associates, Inc., dated January 15, 1989, and recorded January 31, 1989, in Hanger 2, Slide 136 of the Washington County Registry of Deeds. REAL ESTATE BROKERAGE RELATIONSHIPS FORM

Right Now You Are A Customer

Are you interested in buying or selling residential real estate in Maine? Before you begin working with a real estate licensee it is important for you to understand that Maine Law provides for different levels of brokerage service to buyers and sellers. You should decide whether you want to be represented in a transaction (as a client) or not (as a customer). To assist you in deciding which option is in your best interest, please review the following information about real estate brokerage relationships:

Maine law requires all real estate brokerage companies and their affiliated licensees ("licensee") to perform certain basic duties when dealing with a buyer or seller. You can expect a real estate licensee you deal with to provide the following customer-level services:

- ✓ To disclose all material defects pertaining to the physical condition of the real estate that are known by the licensee;
- ✓ To treat both the buyer and seller honestly and not knowingly give false information;
- ✓ To account for all money and property received from or on behalf of the buyer or seller; and
- ✓ To comply with all state and federal laws related to real estate brokerage activity.

Until you enter into a written brokerage agreement with the licensee for client-level representation you are considered a "customer" and the licensee is not your agent. As a customer, you should not expect the licensee to promote your best interest, or to keep any information you give to the licensee confidential, including your bargaining position.

You May Become A Client

If you want a licensee to represent you, you will need to enter into a written listing agreement or a written buyer representation agreement. These agreements create a client-agent relationship between you and the licensee. As a client you can expect the licensee to provide the following services, in addition to the basic services required of all licensees listed above:

- ✓ To perform the terms of the written agreement with skill and care;
- ✓ To promote your best interests:
 - For seller clients this means the agent will put the seller's interests first and negotiate the best price and terms for the seller;
 - For buyer clients this means the agent will put the buyer's interests first and negotiate for the best prices and terms for the buyer; and
- ✓ To maintain the confidentiality of specific client information, including bargaining information.

COMPANY POLICY ON CLIENT-LEVEL SERVICES — WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

The real estate brokerage company's policy on client-level services determines which of the three types of agent-client relationships permitted in Maine may be offered to you. The agent-client relationships permitted in Maine are as follows:

- ✓ The company and all of its affiliated licensees represent you as a client (called "single agency");
- ✓ The company appoints, with your written consent, one or more of the affiliated licensees to represent you as an agent(s) (called "appointed agency");
- ✓ The company may offer limited agent level services as a disclosed dual agent.

WHAT IS A DISCLOSED DUAL AGENT?

In certain situations a licensee may act as an agent for and represent both the buyer and the seller in the same transaction. This is called disclosed dual agency. Both the buyer and the seller must consent to this type of representation in writing.

Working with a dual agent is not the same as having your own exclusive agent as a single or appointed agent. For instance, when representing both a buyer and a seller, the dual agent must not disclose to one party any confidential information obtained from the other party.

Remember!

Unless you enter into a written agreement for agency representation, you are a customer—not a client.

THIS IS NOT A CONTRACT

It is important for you to know that this form is not a contract. The licensee's completion of the statement below acknowledges that you have been given the information required by Maine law regarding brokerage relationships so that you may make an informed decision as to the relationship you wish to establish with the licensee/company.
