Are you dreaming of owning land in Maine's scenic north country—a place where mountain views, clean air, and endless outdoor adventure are right outside your door? Welcome to Hersey, a quiet town of just 73 residents in southern Aroostook County. This 115± acre tract of northern Maine timberland offers a combination of natural beauty, accessibility, and diverse use potential. Whether you're looking for a private homesite, a cabin getaway, a hunting and fishing retreat, or a long-term timber investment, this property can do it all.

A NICE PIECE OF LAND The land fronts approximately 900 feet on the Aroostook Scenic Highway, offering convenient year-round access with power available along the paved frontage. The terrain gently rolls from about 760 to 820 feet above sea level, providing multiple potential building sites with privacy and natural beauty. Mill Brook meanders through the property for an estimated 3,200± feet, with another 1,000 feet along a feeder stream—an ideal setting for those who appreciate the sound of running water and the chance to cast for native trout right on their own land.

The forest here is a healthy mix of roughly two-thirds hardwood and one-third softwood, with Monarda-Burnham soils covering about 80% of the property—excellent for wildlife habitat and forestry management. The remaining Howland, Thorndike, and Plaisted soils are suitable for all uses from wildlife to timber and even some farming.

QUIET & CONVENIENT LOCATION Just seven miles away, the friendly town of Patten offers essentials like groceries, a health clinic, building supplies, and the Patten Lumberman Museum—a must-see for anyone interested in Maine’s logging heritage. For larger services, Houlton is about 36 miles away with the nearest hospital and a border crossing to New Brunswick, Canada. Presque Isle, Bangor, and even Boston are all within reasonable driving distance, making this property both remote and reachable.

This property and the area around it are home to moose, whitetail deer, black bear and most of Maine’s wild creatures. If you are a hunter or just like experiencing daily wildlife sightings this is the place for you.

NEARBY PLACES OF INTEREST Outdoor enthusiasts will love nearby attractions like Mount Chase, Baxter State Park, Katahdin Woods & Waters National Monument, and the vast North Maine Woods—offering millions of acres for hiking, fishing, snowmobiling, and exploring. This is an exceptional opportunity to own a piece of Maine’s great outdoors. Call for details today.

SECTION III – FLOOD HAZARD

For the purposes of this section, Maine law defines "flood" as follows:

- (1) A general and temporary condition of partial or complete inundation of normally dry areas from:(a) The overflow of inland or tidal waters; or (b) The unusual and rapid accumulation or runoff of surface waters from any source; or
- (2) The collapse or subsidence of land along the shore of a lake or other body of water as a result of erosion or undermining caused by waves or currents of water exceeding anticipated cyclical levels or suddenly caused by an unusually high water level in a natural body of water, accompanied by a severe storm or by an unanticipated force of nature, such as a flash flood or an abnormal tidal surge, or by some similarly unusual and unforeseeable event that results in flooding as described in subparagraph (1), division (a).

For purposes of this section, Maine law defines "area of special flood hazard" as land in a floodplain having 1% or greater chance of flooding in any given year, as identified in the effective federal flood insurance study and corresponding flood insurance rate maps.

REAL ESTATE BROKERAGE RELATIONSHIPS FORM

Right Now You Are A Customer

Are you interested in buying or selling residential real estate in Maine? Before you begin working with a real estate licensee it is important for you to understand that Maine Law provides for different levels of brokerage service to buyers and sellers. You should decide whether you want to be represented in a transaction (as a client) or not (as a customer). To assist you in deciding which option is in your best interest, please review the following information about real estate brokerage relationships:

Maine law requires all real estate brokerage companies and their affiliated licensees ("licensee") to perform certain basic duties when dealing with a buyer or seller. You can expect a real estate licensee you deal with to provide the following customer-level services:

- ✓ To disclose all material defects pertaining to the physical condition of the real estate that are known by the licensee;
- ✓ To treat both the buyer and seller honestly and not knowingly give false information;
- ✓ To account for all money and property received from or on behalf of the buyer or seller; and
- ✓ To comply with all state and federal laws related to real estate brokerage activity.

Until you enter into a written brokerage agreement with the licensee for client-level representation you are considered a "customer" and the licensee is not your agent. As a customer, you should not expect the licensee to promote your best interest, or to keep any information you give to the licensee confidential, including your bargaining position.

You May Become A Client

If you want a licensee to represent you, you will need to enter into a written listing agreement or a written buyer representation agreement. These agreements create a client-agent relationship between you and the licensee. As a client you can expect the licensee to provide the following services, in addition to the basic services required of all licensees listed above:

services required of all licensees listed above:

- ✓ To perform the terms of the written agreement with skill and care;
- ✓ To promote your best interests;
 - For seller clients this means the agent will put the seller's interests first and negotiate the best price and terms for the seller;
 - For buyer clients this means the agent will put the buyer's interests first and negotiate for the best prices and terms for the buyer; and
- ✓ To maintain the confidentiality of specific client information, including bargaining information.

COMPANY POLICY ON CLIENT-LEVEL SERVICES — WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

The real estate brokerage company's policy on client-level services determines which of the three types of agent-client relationships permitted in Maine may be offered to you. The agent-client relationships permitted in Maine are as follows:

- ✓ The company and all of its affiliated licensees represent you as a client (called "single agency");
- ✓ The company appoints, with your written consent, one or more of the affiliated licensees to represent you as an agent(s) (called "appointed agency");
- ✓ The company may offer limited agent level services as a disclosed dual agent.

WHAT IS A DISCLOSED DUAL AGENT?

In certain situations a licensee may act as an agent for and represent both the buyer and the seller in the same transaction. This is called disclosed dual agency. Both the buyer and the seller must consent to this type of representation in writing.

Working with a dual agent is not the same as having your own exclusive agent as a single or appointed agent. For instance, when representing both a buyer and a seller, the dual agent must not disclose to one party any confidential information obtained from the other party.

Remember!

Unless you enter into a written agreement for agency representation, you are a customer—not a client.

THIS IS NOT A CONTRACT

It is important for you to know that this form is not a contract. The licensee's completion of the statement below acknowledges that you have been given the information required by Maine law regarding brokerage relationships so that you may make an informed decision as to the relationship you wish to establish with the licensee/company.
