Welcome to this move-in ready in-town home in Lincoln, Maine! Set on a manageable 0.16-acre lot with 70 feet of road frontage on Ayer Street, this 3-bedroom, 1-bath home offers comfort, convenience, and thoughtful updates throughout. With approximately 1,200 square feet of living space, public water, public sewer, and grid power, this property is an easy choice whether you are looking for a year-round residence, an investment opportunity, or a low-maintenance Maine getaway.

Renovated in 2023, the home features a long list of improvements, including new windows, updated flooring, new countertops, heat pumps, electric baseboard heat, a paved driveway, and a paved walkway. The layout includes a convenient first-floor primary bedroom, making single-level living possible, while additional bedrooms provide space for guests, office use, hobbies, or storage.

One of the home's fun and practical special features is the pet den tucked under the stairs — a cozy little space designed with your four-legged companion in mind. Outside, the detached 2-car garage offers plenty of room for vehicles, tools, recreational gear, or workshop space, with additional storage above that could be your studio or man cave if finished off.

The location is a major plus! This home is within walking distance of Lincoln's downtown shopping area, giving you easy access to local services, dining, and everyday conveniences while keeping you in a low traffic neighborhood and off the major travel streets. Lincoln is known for its outdoor recreation, with 13 lakes, the Penobscot River, ATV trails, snowmobile trails, boating, fishing, and year-round adventure close by.

For day trips and regional attractions, you'll be well positioned to visit some of Maine's best-known destinations, including Mount Katahdin, Baxter State Park, Katahdin Woods and Waters National Monument, Acadia National Park, the Bangor Waterfront Concerts, and the Collins Center for the Arts at UMaine.

If you are looking for a renovated low maintenance 3-bedroom home with public utilities, a paved driveway, a detached 2-car garage, and easy access to both town amenities and outdoor recreation, this Lincoln property is well worth a look.

Testimonial:

'A note to say thank you for all of Carmen's efforts concerning the sale of our home in Monson. She really is very experienced in the real estate market and we couldn't be more happy with the whole process. It went smoothly, and in a very short time the house was sold. Her advice along the way made our job less stressful and whenever we had questions she would always return our calls and answer us. Again, we appreciated the working relationship with Carmen and your company, I would give you an A plus and recommend you to others who want to sell or purchase a home.'

PROPERTY LOCATED AT: 22 Ayer Street, Lincoln, ME 04457SECTION VI – FLOOD HAZARD

For the purposes of this section, Maine law defines "flood" as follows:

- (1) A general and temporary condition of partial or complete inundation of normally dry areas from: (a) The overflow of inland or tidal waters; or (b) The unusual and rapid accumulation or runoff of surface waters from any source; or
- (2) The collapse or subsidence of land along the shore of a lake or other body of water as a result of erosion or undermining caused by waves or currents of water exceeding anticipated cyclical levels or suddenly caused by an unusually high water level in a natural body of water, accompanied by a severe storm or by an unanticipated force of nature, such as a flash flood or an abnormal tidal surge, or by some similarly unusual and unforeseeable event that results in flooding as described in subparagraph (1), division (a).

For purposes of this section, Maine law defines "area of special flood hazard" as land in a floodplain having 1% or greater chance of flooding in any given year, as identified in the effective federal flood insurance study and corresponding flood insurance rate maps.

REAL ESTATE BROKERAGE RELATIONSHIPS FORM

Right Now You Are A Customer

Are you interested in buying or selling residential real estate in Maine? Before you begin working with a real estate licensee it is important for you to understand that Maine Law provides for different levels of brokerage service to buyers and sellers. You should decide whether you want to be represented in a transaction (as a client) or not (as a customer). To assist you in deciding which option is in your best interest, please review the following information about real estate brokerage relationships:

Maine law requires all real estate brokerage companies and their affiliated licensees ("licensee") to perform certain basic duties when dealing with a buyer or seller. You can expect a real estate licensee you deal with to provide the following customer-level services:

- ✓ To disclose all material defects pertaining to the physical condition of the real estate that are known by the licensee;
- ✓ To treat both the buyer and seller honestly and not knowingly give false information;
- ✓ To account for all money and property received from or on behalf of the buyer or seller; and
- ✓ To comply with all state and federal laws related to real estate brokerage activity.

Until you enter into a written brokerage agreement with the licensee for client-level representation you are considered a "customer" and the licensee is not your agent. As a customer, you should not expect the licensee to promote your best interest, or to keep any information you give to the licensee confidential, including your bargaining position.

You May Become A Client

If you want a licensee to represent you, you will need to enter into a written listing agreement or a written buyer representation agreement. These agreements create a client-agent relationship between you and the licensee. As a client you can expect the licensee to provide the following services, in addition to the basic services required of all licensees listed above:

- ✓ To perform the terms of the written agreement with skill and care;
- ✓ To promote your best interests;
 - For seller clients this means the agent will put the seller's interests first and negotiate the best price and terms for the seller;
 - For buyer clients this means the agent will put the buyer's interests first and negotiate for the best prices and terms for the buyer; and
- ✓ To maintain the confidentiality of specific client information, including bargaining information.

COMPANY POLICY ON CLIENT-LEVEL SERVICES — WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

The real estate brokerage company's policy on client-level services determines which of the three types of agent-client relationships permitted in Maine may be offered to you. The agent-client relationships permitted in Maine are as follows:

- ✓ The company and all of its affiliated licensees represent you as a client (called "single agency");
- ✓ The company appoints, with your written consent, one or more of the affiliated licensees to represent you as an agent(s) (called "appointed agency");
- ✓ The company may offer limited agent level services as a disclosed dual agent.

WHAT IS A DISCLOSED DUAL AGENT?

In certain situations a licensee may act as an agent for and represent both the buyer and the seller in the same transaction. This is called disclosed dual agency. Both the buyer and the seller must consent to this type of representation in writing.

Working with a dual agent is not the same as having your own exclusive agent as a single or appointed agent. For instance, when representing both a buyer and a seller, the dual agent must not disclose to one party any confidential information obtained from the other party.

Remember!

Unless you enter into a written agreement for agency representation, you are a customer—not a client.

THIS IS NOT A CONTRACT

It is important for you to know that this form is not a contract. The licensee's completion of the statement below acknowledges that you have been given the information required by Maine law regarding brokerage relationships so that you may make an informed decision as to the relationship you wish to establish with the licensee/company.
