If you've been searching for a true outdoor paradise, 194 Seboeis Road in Howland, Maine is a rare find. This expansive 516± acre tract offers an unmatched combination of upland forest, productive soils, wetlands, and direct adjacency to the State of Maine's Pond Farm Wildlife Management Area. Whether you're a hunter, wildlife photographer, conservationist, or someone who dreams of a large-scale homestead, this property provides an extraordinary setting for your goals.

The land features approximately 2,300 feet of road frontage on Seboeis Road and even includes nearly a mile of interior road, making access into the property convenient for trucks, ATVs, or recreational vehicles. With elevations ranging from 160 to 240 feet, the terrain offers gentle diversity. According to NRCS soil mapping, about 200± acres consist of Colton gravelly sandy loams—well-regarded for their productivity and suitable for potential building sites, food plots, or agricultural uses. The remainder of the property consists of peat bogs and wetland habitat that supports incredible biodiversity. This mix of upland and wetland creates ideal conditions for wildlife and enhances the recreational and conservation value of the land.

Wildlife enthusiasts will find themselves surrounded by opportunity. The property surrounds the Pond Farm Wildlife Management Area, a 450± acre state-managed marsh that supports thriving waterfowl populations and diverse habitats. With water control structures, vegetation management, and artificial nesting areas, the WMA is actively maintained to support breeding and migrating species. This adjacency makes 194 Seboeis Road not only a premier hunting location but also a sanctuary for observing Maine's natural ecosystem. Whitetail deer, moose, bear, grouse, and countless songbirds are frequent visitors to the property.

Recreation abounds just beyond the property lines as well. South Branch Lake, a 2,035-acre semi-remote lake known for trophy bass, is only 6.5 miles away. The nearby Seboeis Stream and Piscataquis River provide trout, bass, and outstanding paddling opportunities. For motorized fun, ATV trails are accessible right from Seboeis Road, connecting you to Maine's vast trail network.

'I was fortunate enough to have the opportunity to work with Emily Pond on two different properties. She was incredible to work with! She took the time to explain the process and was extremely knowledgeable on all areas pertaining to listing, selling, and closing both properties. I would highly recommend her as your realtor, and will turn to her again in the future, if I ever need to list a property. Don't waste your time searching around, go straight to United Country Lifestyle Properties of Maine! They offer a more than fair price given the amount of work and effort they put into listing and selling your property.'

REAL ESTATE BROKERAGE RELATIONSHIPS FORM

Right Now You Are A Customer

Are you interested in buying or selling residential real estate in Maine? Before you begin working with a real estate licensee it is important for you to understand that Maine Law provides for different levels of brokerage service to buyers and sellers. You should decide whether you want to be represented in a transaction (as a client) or not (as a customer). To assist you in deciding which option is in your best interest, please review the following information about real estate brokerage relationships:

Maine law requires all real estate brokerage companies and their affiliated licensees ("licensee") to perform certain basic duties when dealing with a buyer or seller. You can expect a real estate licensee you deal with to provide the following customer-level services:

- ✓ To disclose all material defects pertaining to the physical condition of the real estate that are known by the licensee;
- ✓ To treat both the buyer and seller honestly and not knowingly give false information;
- ✓ To account for all money and property received from or on behalf of the buyer or seller; and
- ✓ To comply with all state and federal laws related to real estate brokerage activity.

Until you enter into a written brokerage agreement with the licensee for client-level representation you are considered a "customer" and the licensee is not your agent. As a customer, you should not expect the licensee to promote your best interest, or to keep any information you give to the licensee confidential, including your bargaining position.

You May Become A Client

If you want a licensee to represent you, you will need to enter into a written listing agreement or a written buyer representation agreement. These agreements create a client-agent relationship between you and the licensee. As a client you can expect the licensee to provide the following services, in addition to the basic services required of all licensees listed above:

- ✓ To perform the terms of the written agreement with skill and care;
- ✓ To promote your best interests;
 - For seller clients this means the agent will put the seller's interests first and negotiate the best price and terms for the seller;
 - For buyer clients this means the agent will put the buyer's interests first and negotiate for the best prices and terms for the buyer; and
- ✓ To maintain the confidentiality of specific client information, including bargaining information.

COMPANY POLICY ON CLIENT-LEVEL SERVICES — WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

The real estate brokerage company's policy on client-level services determines which of the three types of agent-client relationships permitted in Maine may be offered to you. The agent-client relationships permitted in Maine are as follows:

- ✓ The company and all of its affiliated licensees represent you as a client (called "single agency");
- ✓ The company appoints, with your written consent, one or more of the affiliated licensees to represent you as an agent(s) (called "appointed agency");
- ✓ The company may offer limited agent level services as a disclosed dual agent.

WHAT IS A DISCLOSED DUAL AGENT?

In certain situations a licensee may act as an agent for and represent both the buyer and the seller in the same transaction. This is called disclosed dual agency. Both the buyer and the seller must consent to this type of representation in writing.

Working with a dual agent is not the same as having your own exclusive agent as a single or appointed agent. For instance, when representing both a buyer and a seller, the dual agent must not disclose to one party any confidential information obtained from the other party.

Remember!
Unless you enter into a written agreement for agency representation, you are a customer—not a client.

THIS IS NOT A CONTRACT

It is important for you to know that this form is not a contract. The licensee's completion of the statement below acknowledges that you have been given the information required by Maine law regarding brokerage relationships so that you may make an informed decision as to the relationship you wish to establish with the licensee/company.

SECTION III – FLOOD HAZARD

- (1) A general and temporary condition of partial or complete inundation of normally dry areas from: (a) The overflow of inland or tidal waters; or (b) The unusual and rapid accumulation or runoff of surface waters from any source; or
- (2) The collapse or subsidence of land along the shore of a lake or other body of water as a result of erosion or undermining caused by waves or currents of water exceeding anticipated cyclical levels or suddenly caused by an unusually high water level in a natural body of water, accompanied by a severe storm or by an unanticipated force of nature, such as a flash flood or an abnormal tidal surge, or by some similarly unusual and unforeseeable event that results in flooding as described in subparagraph (1), division (a).
