is defined by privacy, towering aspens, and access to the outdoor lifestyle that makes Snowmass Village so extraordinary.

Set on a private homesite in one of Ridge Run on Snowmass Mtn, this thoughtfully reimagined mountain retreat offers indirect ski access to Snowmass Ski Area, with ski-out via Eddy Out and ski-in via West Fork, along with immediate access to an extensive network of hiking and biking trails—creating an exceptional year-round mountain lifestyle.

Designed to embrace its natural surroundings, the light-filled main level is framed by expansive windows that draw the outdoors in, creating a seamless connection to the surrounding aspen grove. Seasonal winter views emerge through the trees, while multiple terraces extend the living spaces outdoors, offering inviting settings for entertainment, morning coffee among the aspens, or peaceful evenings beneath the Colorado sky.

At the heart of the home, the chef's kitchen with contemporary style, featuring custom white oak cabinetry, quartzite countertops, Italian porcelain flooring, and professional-grade Wolf and Sub-Zero appliances. The main-level primary suite offers the ease of single-level living, while guest suites and a spacious family room below provide comfort and privacy for family and friends. Completing the retreat, the spa-inspired primary bath is appointed with radiant-heated imported marble floors, a deep soaking tub, and a steam shower—an ideal place to unwind after a day skiing, hiking, biking, or simply enjoying the tranquility of one of Snowmass Village's most desirable mountain neighborhoods.
